KIWANIS BACK GOOD ROADS MOVE

Want Improved Roadway From Mannington to Wetzel County Town.

MANNINGTON, Oct. 4.—The Mannington Kiwanis Club entertained a number of guests from Smithfield and neighboring sections in Grant District, Wetzel County, at the noonday luncheon yesterday for the purpose of starting a movement to secure improved roads between Mannington and Smithfield.

The visitors were unanimously in favor of the proposed road, and the members of the Kiwanis Club, all through the discussion which followed immediately after the luncheon there was a note of optimism and cooperation that spoke well for the success of the plan.

H. V. Burr, the Rev. John Bedow, W. M. Grafton, C. E. Brown, E. Reader, Pat Garland, J. Price, William Garland, Ray Merrifield, E. W. Rouse, W. H. Dillon, Mr. Whistler, C. G. Merce, E. R. Hood, Ross Burgess, the Rev. W. B. Ruppert, H. D. Allen and the club president, George W. Hovers, each spoke for a few minutes expressing their interest and favoring better roads between the two communities, thus bringing them closer together and establishing a firmer relationship between the citizens of each district.

The belief was generally expressed that the proposed road is the only local means through which Grant District and especially Smithfield, may secure an outlet. Emphasis was also placed upon the statement that bad roads are expensive to those who travel them, and delay the development of a community to a great extent.

It was pointed out that the oil and gas, which have added greatly to the wealth of Mannington and Grant districts, must before long be exhausted, and it was urged that action be taken now while there is other resource than the surface itself. It is easier to build a good road now, it was declared, than later when the districts will have no income save from the usual farm products.

A committee of the members of the Kiwanis Club was appointed to cooperate with a committee to be appointed later from Grant District in the selection of the most advisable method of securing the interest and cooperation of the citizens of the two districts. It is believed that definite action will be taken before long.

H. V. Burr reported yesterday that the male ordinance which the Kiwanis Club was instrumental in getting out before the commission has been turned back to the city attorney who will incorporate a provision for the appropriation of funds with which to employ an inspector. Action will be taken immediately, it was said.

The prizes given out yesterday were supplied by F. H. Huey. First prize went to E. H. Magers, second to C. E. Brown, and the booby prize was won by Pat Garland.

The luncheon was served in the dining room of the M. E. Church again yesterday, and comments of appreciation were made by everyone served. The ladies of the church acted as hostesses, and the carefully prepared food was served upon tables decorated with brilliant autumn flowers.

MANNINGTON ON EDGE FOR GAME

Officials Announced for Fairmont High Game at Black-shere Saturday.

MANNINGTON, Oct. 4.—The football practice sessions, Monday and Tuesday were both long, lasting until nearly dark. The workout Monday was a fairly light one, although signal practice took up much of the period, but the boys were put through one of the most grueling sessions of the season Tuesday. Scrimmage was in order for the greater part of the period.

The work this week has been rather rugged on the part of both teams, although the variety was able to make good gains through the second team's defense. The team-work has been of color compared to what it was last week, and fumbling was frequent due to the clouds of dust and the intense heat on the field. Nothing is being left undone by Coach Blake, to put the team in the best of condition for the coming game with Fairmont High, and when the whistle of Mike Leatherwood set the game in motion at 3:15 Saturday the Mannington team will be in the best condition it is shown this year.

The local boys will enter the battle Saturday with blood in their eyes, remembering last year's result at Fairmont when the Mannington team went down to defeat at the hands of one of the poorest teams Fairmont had had in years, to the tune of 7 to 0, the result of an intercepted forward pass.

This year the over-confidence that was so clearly manifested in the last game with Fairmont will be entirely absent, and every Mannington player will go in to the game with the intention of giving just a little better than his best.

Fairmont, on paper, clearly has it over the Mannington eleven in every respect. That team is made up of veterans with the addition of several stars from independent football teams; they outwitted the locals individually; they are faster and have greater reserve strength. Nevertheless, Mannington hopes to overcome these handicaps and make up by sheer determination what she lacks in experience and weight.

Leatherwood of Clarksburg will referee the game. Toothman of Monongah will umpire, while Furbush of W. V. U. will act as head linesman.

A record crowd is expected to witness the game as Black-shere park is very accessible to all of Marion County, and also because of the greatest bearing on the county championship as well as the valley championship. Many spectators from points other than Mannington and Fairmont are expected.

Mannington Personals

Mrs. Alice Snodgrass and C. Ed. Snodgrass were business visitors in Fairmont last evening.

John Levelle of Salem is the guest of relatives in East Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. James Griffith of Fairmont were recent guests at the home of Mrs. L. R. Criss in East Main street.

DEAL IN SECOND MORTGAGE

WHEELING, W. Va., Oct. 4.—A second mortgage finance company was organized here today, with a capitalization of $250,000, the first of its nature in the state. The company announces that it will deal exclusively in second mortgages for the purpose of aiding new home builders. The name of the company is Wheeling Second Mortgage Co.

GOING TO ROUMANIA

MANNINGTON, Oct. 4.—E. C. McCarnes left today for Roumania, where he will be connected with the field work of the Transcontinental Oil Co.

Mr. McCarnes, who was formerly a district superintendent in the employ of the South Penn Oil Co., will go from here to New York City and embark there for the ocean voyage.

He said this morning that his work in the new field is rather problematical as yet, and he was not certain in just what capacity he would act there. His stay in the East, he said, would depend to a great extent upon conditions as they might exist there.

Birthday Club

Mrs. J. T. Koen entertained the members of the Ladies' Birthday Club, or the "Ladies of Sixty," at her home in Pleasant street this afternoon.

To Pave Approaches

The city commissioners have instructed the city attorney to draw up an ordinance authorizing the paving of Turbine and Beatty avenues, and also included the paving required to connect Main street and Pyles Fork avenue with the Brookside bridge. These two approaches have never been paved, and become very disagreeable in winter, it is said.

Three Contagious Cases

Only three cases of contagious diseases are reported in the city at present. Two cases of scarlet fever are under quarantine on Burt Hill and one case of typhoid in "Homewood" is reported almost recovered.

It was reported that members of the families under quarantine for scarlet fever have broken quarantine, and Chief of Police J. W. Eflaw made an investigation yesterday.

It is pointed out by the authorities that persons under quarantine endanger the safety of the entire community by refusing to observe the restriction, and that often the lightest case of scarlet fever may communicate the disease in its worst form to others.

Carrier Examination

An examination for rural mail carrier at Metz will be held here November 11, and application blanks are ready for distribution at the local postoffice.

Both men and women, if qualified, are eligible for this examination. Women will not be considered, however, unless they are widows of soldiers, sailors, and marines of the United States service, or widows of members of the same service who are physically unable to work because of wounds received while in the service.

Executive Meeting

The Executive Board of the Woman's Club will hold a business session in the parlors of the M. E. Church tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock.

Entertains Club

Mrs. P. H. Pitzer entertained the members of the Wednesday Bridge Club at her home in Marshall street last afternoon.

From Terra Alta

Mrs. F. A. Burt returned yesterday from Terra Alta where she was for the past month while recovering after an operation undergone in a Baltimore hospital. She is greatly improved.

OBJECTION TO NAME GIVEN GIRLS' CLUB

MANNINGTON, Oct. 4.—It has been generally reported that a few of the local high school girls have organized a club called the "Devilish Wild Women Club." One of the officers of the club made the following statement today "for the purpose of setting the public right regarding the name and purpose of the club."

"The club was originally called the W. D. W. Club, meaning 'We Don't Worry.' Later when several young people were unable to join, they jokingly called the club the 'D. W. W. Club,' and in order to correct the impression this gave the name was changed to 'A. W. G. F.' meaning 'Ain't We Got Fun.' The members of the club and their parents are very angry at the reflections cast upon the club in this manner."

The officer further declared that the club is merely a group of young people organized as a means of amusement and clean fun, much along the same plan as any other high school organization.

TO SHOW PICTURES

As an incident of Fire Prevention Week which is being observed in Fairmont this week, Fire Chief O. J. Watkins has some fire prevention slides scheduled for showing in the local theaters, Friday and Saturday the films used in the fire prevention campaign of the Consolidation Coal Co. will be shown here.

A wild horse lives to be 35 or 40 years old, while the domesticated horse is old at 25.

COUNTY CONVENTION TO OPEN TOMORROW

There will be many visitors here tomorrow and Friday to attend the Marion County Sunday school convention which will be held at the Palestine Baptist Church. B. C. Morrow of Fairmont is the chairman of the entertainment committee.

An interesting program has been arranged consisting of talks by different members of the county association. Mr. E. J. Thomas will speak on the aims and objects of the convention tomorrow morning. Tomorrow evening there will be an address by Walter R. Hall and one by H. H. Rose.

On Friday morning there will be an address by the Rev. C. H. King, his topic being "The Value of Trained Teachers in Religious Education." Miss Mary A. Schroeder will speak on "The Hope of the World."

The meeting will close with the installation of new officers. The officers are: President, E. J. Thomas; secretary, H. F. Barba; treasurer, J. T. Criss; superintendent of children's division, Jesse Lee; teacher training, Mrs. E. M. Cox; publicity superintendent, John McKinney.

Woodruff-Garner

John Woodruff, son of William Woodruff of near Bridgeport, O., and Miss Olive Garner of Hundred were married Sunday morning at the home of the bride here.

The wedding was attended by the parents of the bride and bridegroom. The Rev. Ralph Sum of the Christian Church was officiating minister.

Mrs. Woodruff is one of Hundred's most popular young women, and was a junior in the high school. Mr. Woodruff is a carpenter, and is in charge of the construction of the new high school building here.

The young couple will make their home in Bridgeport, Ohio, after Mr. Woodruff's work in Hundred is completed.

Four motor cars were wrecked here from Saturday to Monday, several serious injuries resulting. Only one of the cars was damaged to any great extent.

Ed Windel received a broken collar bone, and Charles Keffer had the fingers on one hand broken when the brakes on the car driven by Mr. Windel caught, causing the car to turn over.

A car driven by George Anderson ran over a fifty foot embankment when the lights failed on a sharp turn Saturday night. Mr. Anderson and two other occupants of the car jumped and escaped injury, but the auto was a total wreck.

Cars driven by Charles Kirkhart and Hazen Himelreich collided in the dense fog which hung in the valley Sunday evening, and each car lost a wheel. No one was injured. This accident occurred just outside of town at a sharp curve in the road.

Snowdon White, crowded by another car, crashed his machine into a concrete bridge just north of Hundred. Thomas Pethel was seriously cut by flying glass from the windshield, and Mr. Albert received a badly sprained knee. Mr. White was not seriously hurt.

Miss Roberts Dead

Miss Nell Roberts, 15, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Roberts, died at her home near Garrison. Funeral services were held Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Roberts had been ill for only a short time of typhoid fever, and her death comes as a shock to the many friends who knew and loved her.

Community Meeting

A community meeting was held at the Annabelle School Friday evening, and was well attended. I. A. Barnes, county superintendent of schools, was present and delivered an address. His subject was, "Some Old Fashioned Ideas."

Barnes placed special emphasis on the respect and enforcement of law. He pointed out that disrespect for law and order usually started in the homes. Mr. Barnes also emphasized the enforcement of the compulsory attendance law, and gave his interpretation of some of the vital points of the law.

This was the first community meeting to be held this year. The principal and teachers are arranging for a number of social center meetings during the year.

Teacher III.

Mrs. Helen Harris, teacher of the first grade, is again confined to her home on account of sickness. It is thought that she will not be able to continue her work. Another teacher will be appointed to fill the vacancy in the near future.

Personals

Mrs. Bertha Combs, one of the local teachers, spent the week-end visiting at her home at Clarksburg.

Joseph Ferrell, an employee of the Four States Coal Co., was visiting friends in Clarksburg Sunday.

The Rev. W. F. Allen of Friendley, W. Va., is visiting at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Howard Byard. The Reverend Mr. Allen attended the M. E. Conference at Fairmont.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence L. Sturm attended the annual M. E. Conference at Fairmont Sunday.

Fay Martin and Lyle ("Red") Byard were among those who attended the football game Saturday.

WOMAN'S CLUB CENSORSHIP

Criticism and comment on the attractions at the local theaters appearing in this column are furnished by the movie censorship committee of the Woman's Club of Fairmont. The West Virginian does not assume any responsibility for the opinions expressed.

The Princess

"Collegiate Stuff," while given only as an added feature at the Princess today, is quite sufficient attraction to insure an interested audience, for it gives a spirited portrayal of college enthusiasm.

Cornell, Yale and Harvard sport activities as closing events of the school year are shown.

The featured attraction is "Golden Dream," a Jane Guy story that as is true of all her writings, carries a note of mystery and intrigue.

Spanish types and customs are interwoven into the plot, but the leading characters are Americans with Claire Adams and Carl Galtvout playing the leading roles in a telling manner.

International News is another offering.

The Nelson

While the auto-race in "Across the Continent" furnishes thrills plenty in the film of that title, showing at the Nelson for the last times today, it is the spirit back of it that is so fine and admirable, and the perfect understanding and sympathy that develops because of it, between father and son.

If you are a parent, either father or mother, you can just feel with John Dent as played by Theodore Roberts, the heartache and disappointment that he experiences when his only son, Jimmy (Wallace Reid) underates and refuses to use his make of car because it is in the flivver class.

The little secretary to the president—the role taken by Mary McClaren—does her best to make the son see what a real benefactor his father is, in putting out a car that folk of moderate means can afford, but her words fall upon deaf ears, and he starts on a trip in the touring car of another make.

Entrees were being made to the trans-continental race, and his father decides to compete but at the last moment his driver is unable to start, and rather than be out-done he announces his intention of driving his own car. Jimmy has entered the race to drive another car but a spirit of pride, and loyalty to his father suddenly awakens and he comes to the rescue and saves the day, and makes a reputation for the "Dent" car and family.

It is clean entertainment for everybody.

Comedy is an added feature.
